

Kieran O'Brien

Partner in Management Consulting & Head of Advisory Aviation Finance at KPMG

5:15 – 6:05 pm Panel “Challenges and opportunities around nature-based voluntary carbon offsets”

Kieran is a partner in Management Consulting and is the lead advisory partner in the Aviation Finance practice. Kieran has 22 years' experience of providing advisory services to the world's leading Aviation companies in the areas of performance improvement and optimisation, finance efficiency, post deal integration / separation and setting up leasing platforms.

Kieran also provides Financial Management services to our clients across a number of industries leading the transformation of finance functions in reporting, controls and providing management insight.