

Dr Ulrike Ziegler

Managing Director at impact on sustainable aviation e.V.

3:15 – 3:20 pm Welcome speech

Ulrike Ziegler is president of impact, a non-profit association founded in early 2022 by leading financiers in aviation. impact, a global platform, aims at promoting transparency on airlines' CO2 data, providing tangible KPIs to measure and track their carbon footprint and enhancing industry-wide discussion on sustainability.

Ulrike has more than 20 years aviation experience and held senior positions at UniCredit Bank as Global Head of Aircraft Finance and at ING Germany as Head of Aviation. She has worked with airlines and lessors around the globe at various stages of their business development. Keen to facilitate change she has spearheaded major strategic projects at both UniCredit and ING.

Ulrike has served as long-standing member of the Investment Committee at HSH Global Aircraft I. Prior to her aviation career she has worked in Project Finance, Export Finance and Syndications.